WHO KEEPS US SAFE?

A PROSPECT PARK NEIGHBORHOOD SAFETY WORKSHOP SERIES

2020 opened the door to new possibilities; 2021 presents us with the opportunity to step through it. The killing of George Floyd and our ongoing reckoning with longstanding racism has forced Minneapolis to answer difficult questions: Who keeps us safe? What role should the police play in public safety? What does it mean to be safe in the first place?

Join your neighbors on the first five Wednesdays of 2021 for a series about public safety in Prospect Park guided by local activists and advocates. Drop in for just one session or join them all.

Learn, share, question, and connect.

RSVP here: <https://forms.gle/rst7g2HT3dg8vNRx9>

Presenter Descriptions:

JAN 6, 5:30PM - Minneapolis Police History, Sheila Nezhad, MPD150

MPD150 is a community-based initiative challenging the narrative that police exist to protect and serve. The purpose of MPD150 is to change the story of policing in Minneapolis in order to set in motion a process for dissolving the Minneapolis Police Department. They accomplish this by shifting the discussion around police and policing in Minneapolis from one of procedural reforms to one of meaningful structural change and using research, community dialogue, creative visioning, and cultural activism, and encourages widespread community engagement and initiative. Notably, MPD150's "Enough Is Enough: A 150-Year Performance Review of the Minneapolis Police Department" is 140 page report and toolkit explores the history and performance of the Minneapolis Police Department from an abolitionist perspective.

JAN 13, 5:30PM - City Solutions: Erin Sikkink, Minneapolis Office of Violence Prevention

The Office of Violence Prevention (OVP) uses a community-focused, public health approach to help ensure that everyone can be free from violence. We work to break the cycle of violence by addressing it at three points: preventing it before it begins, intervening at the first sign of risk, and healing after it happens.

JAN 20, 7:30PM - Traffic Safety and Policing: Ash Narayanan, Our Streets

Our Streets Minneapolis works for a city where biking, walking, and rolling are easy and comfortable for everyone. We envision a city where biking, walking, and rolling are easy and joyful for people of all backgrounds and identities in all parts of Minneapolis; a city where streets and trails are vibrant community spaces with people walking and biking year-round and at all times; where kids and families feel safe and comfortable walking and biking to neighborhood schools, parks, and businesses; where older adults and people with mobility challenges are healthy, independent, and connected with their communities through streets and sidewalks designed for them; and where abundant biking and walking contributes to happy people, a healthy environment, and a strong economy.

JAN 27, noon - Neighborhood Solutions: Tabitha Montgomery and Grace Berke,
Powderhorn Park Neighborhood Association

Tabitha Montgomery and Grace Berke serve at the Powderhorn Park Neighborhood Association (PPNA) and have been advocating for public safety resources in South Minneapolis for several years. This includes work with the South Minneapolis Public Safety Coalition to create several proposals to increase investments in preventative strategies and livability improvements. PPNA has had the chance to learn from and engage with many community members and leaders on how public and private investment can better meet our public safety needs.

FEB 3, noon - Community-Led Activism: Lex Horan, Reclaim the Block

Reclaim the Block's mission is to build a Black-led, multiracial movement empowered to dismantle and defund the Minneapolis Police Department and to move those resources into community-led projects that truly promote health and safety. Our foundation is rooted in love, transformative organizing, building deep trust within our communities, abolition, and accountability.

Local film legend, Al Milgrom dies at the age of 98.

Known as 'The Godfather of the Twin Cities film scene', Milgrom passed away peacefully on December 20, 2020.

Al founded what is today the MSP Film Society in 1962, as the University Film Society and the Minneapolis St. Paul International Film Festival (formerly Rivertown Film Festival) in the early 1980's. For more than 50 years he introduced countless Minnesotans to the best of international cinema and to the concept of film as an important art form.

In Al's 90's he began completing his own films, starting with his documentary "The Dinkytown Uprising" which he first filmed in 1970. It chronicles the unprecedented 40-day, 40-night continuous Dinkytown "Occupation" to prevent construction of an unwanted hamburger joint.

And to the Museum of Russian Art, tmora.org. Al loved the Museum of Russian Art, and would visit it frequently. His parents fled Russia and Al had traveled there many times.

2021 Luxton Park Fire and Ice Festival News

-from Steve Zimmer, Luxton Park Director

~Luxton Fire & Ice will hopefully be held at some point in 2021. As of right now we are not able to have an event of this nature. The only activity will be the bonfire. There will be no indoor activities, hay ride, etc.

~However, we will still be picking up trees on the basis of having the event at some point. Currently we are still planning on Saturday, February 6th for the event but, may have to change the date depending on the status of any Governors mandate.

- Event Date: TBD
- Event Time: 5:30 – 8 PM
- Event Location: Luxton Park-112 Williams Ave SE
- Tree Pick Up: We will be out in the neighborhood on Wednesday, January 13th & 27th, from 11:30 AM – 5 PM.
  - We will pick up trees during that time if they are on the curb or if a neighbor emails szimmer@minneapolisparks.org
  - We will not go on someone's property, up to the porch, in the alley without an email. If a tree is on the curb on the dates and times listed we will grab it.

Please join PPA's Planning and Land Use Committee at 7pm on Thursday, January 14th, 2021 to consider a motion to approve the proposed Prospect Park Unified Project Design Standards and Preamble. A PPA Land Use Design Standards Task Force comprised of PPA board and community members has been working on this project for several months. In addition, PPA Land Use members provided input at their December meeting. The Standards have been approved by the St Anthony Park neighborhood and Towerside Innovation District. The proposed Design Standards and Preamble, in conjunction with PPA's Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) process, will provide planning and design guidance to all parties with a stake or role in the development and redevelopment of Prospect Park.
